NUTRITIONAL BRIGADE

Borderless Brigade organizes and sends a small brigade of individuals specifically charged with gathering and distributing nutritional items to each family which visits our medical or dental clinics. We purchase rice and beans in bulk and collect and ship ahead other non-perishable items such as peanut butter, pasta, adult supplement drinks and infant formula.

A typical international trip for our Nutritional Brigade is made up of two people. The average total budget for each international Nutritional Brigade is $6,125. This amount does not include international travel expense, we ask each of our participants to pay their own travel cost.

This budget consists of the following expenses:

- $4,500 to purchase rice and beans
- $1,550 for in-country expenses (transportation, meals, lodging & security)
- $75 for translator

You can help by donating supplies from a list found on our website or by donating funds to help offset this budget.

Please allow us to be your emissary as together we equip, embrace and enhance lives.
